

The High Rise building projects being proposed for Greenwich are completely out of line.

The traffic in town is already crushing, and there is zero parking not to mention the water shortage.

We can't allow developers to build these oversized developments.

You can't even drive on Church Street as it is so narrow.

I don't understand the lack of oversight.

Please reconsider these projects.

Pat Francois
66 Sawmill Lane